hearts burning with love for the slave, and willing to learn and do all their duty toward him. For his sake do we urge all to come. Let not difficulties, which with a little effort or a little sacrifice may be surmounted, keep any true-hearted Abolitionist away. Let not any say that their presence will be of no importance. Each may impart and receive benefit. Let us gather and hear a full and free conference.

The Windham county Anti-Slavery Society will hold a meeting in Danielsonville on Tuesday the 10th of December next, commencing at 10 o'clock A. M.

SYLVANIA.

Dear friends and fellow laborers.—With hopeful hearts, we have commenced our preparations for our next annual fair, resolved that it shall be greatly superior to that of the last year. For the accomplishment of this purpose, we are dependent upon you. Will you not

Nor need we present to you arguments in favor of this method of advancing our cause. You are aware that our fairs have been a source of great pecuniary profit, as the reports of the treasurer of the Philadelphia Female cies which you have constituted. You have nobly responded to our calls, in other years. Have you not commenced our second decade with renewed ardor and increased self-sacrifice? Will you not evince it by immediately beginning, with us, preparations for the fair of 1844? Labor, each according to his power, will be the motto.

fair profit. If any of our friends in the country, will come and superintend the sale of their articles, they will be most welcome, and their aid truly valuable.

We are sorry to say that our poultry stall was not as well furnished as usual last year. Will not abolitionists

(and what abolitionist in Eastern Pennsylvania does not) so begin at once to do something, and enlist their sympathies and efforts of as many others as possible. We are sure, dear friends, that none of us will regret having done too much, but we may regret having done
